

The Diary of Samuel Pepys 1662

Samuel Pepys was the first Secretary to the Admiralty during the reign of Charles II, instrumental in developing the Royal Navy and witness to some of the most significant events of the Restoration period, including the Great Fire of London. His famous diary, which covers a period of some ten years, throws a frank and intimate light on a fascinating period, through the lens of a vigorous, intelligent and refreshingly candid and extrovert personality. This volume covers the third year of the diary. (Summary by Nicole Lee)

Read by Nicole Lee. Total Running Time: 06:42:48.

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture from Samuel Pepys by John Hayls. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by Esther ben Simonides. This design is in the public domain.

The Diary of Samuel Pepys 1662